

NNSA Releases for Public Comment a Draft Programmatic Agreement Among the NNSA and the Advisory Council for Historic Preservation, the New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer, the Incorporated County of Los Alamos, New Mexico, and the Pueblo of San Ildefonso Concerning the Conveyance of Certain Parcels of Land to Los Alamos County

The U.S. Department of Energy, National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) plans on entering into a programmatic agreement with the New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer, the Advisory Council for Historic Preservation, the Incorporated County of Los Alamos, and the Pueblo of San Ildefonso for the conveyance of certain New Mexico land tracts to the County of Los Alamos. The programmatic agreement addresses potential adverse effects to historic properties located on the subject land tracts.

The public is invited to attend a Public Meeting on February 26, 2002 from 6 to 8 p.m. at Fuller Lodge in Los Alamos. NNSA will accept comments on the draft programmatic agreement until March 15, 2002. Copies of the document are available in the DOE Public Reading Room at 1619 Central Avenue and Mesa Public Library at 2400 Central Ave., Los Alamos, NM; and the Northern New Mexico Citizens Advisory Board office in Santa Fe, at 1660 Old Pecos Trail, Suite B. Questions regarding this action may be directed to Elizabeth Withers, NHPA Compliance Coordinator, NNSA-Los Alamos, 528 35th Street, Los Alamos, NM 87544, or call 667-8690.
